Rosie with her Community Service Award

Winton stalwart, Rosie Archer, received a wonderful early gift for her upcoming 94th birthday when the District Governor of Lions, David Watts, visited her at home. Mr Watts presented Rosie with the Lions' Community Service Award No.99. A delightful morning tea was held at Rosie's farm and attended by Lions' members, Winton locals and David's wife, Alison. The prestigious award was presented in recognition of Rosie's service to the winton community in Council, Queensland Country Women's Association, Corfield and Fitzmaurice Museum Life Member and Winton Ambassador to name but a few. Winton already knows well what a treasure Rosie is in the community and are invited to celebrate Rosie's 94th birthday at her farm on Friday 16 October from ten o'clock onwards. Congratulations, Rosie.

Come celebrate Rosie's 94th Birthday!

Ms Rosemary Archer

District 201 Q4 Lions Club International

Community Service Award No. 99

Dear Ms Archer,

On behalf of the Queensland and Northern New South Wales Lions Medical Research Foundation it is with much pleasure that I congratulate you on being awarded the Lions Medical Research Foundation Community Service Award.

This prestigious award is presented to you by District 201 Q4 Lions Club International in recognition of your dedicated service as Winton Councillor (7 years), Ambassador of Winton, Volunteer Queensland Country Women's Association (ACWA), Corfield and Fitzmaurice Museum Life Member. You have also been a valued member of the Tennis Club, Bowls Club, Swimming Club patron, Pony Club patron, Winton Agricultural Show patron and life member Church, Legacy and Winton Light Horse. Your exemplary work and your efforts have touched many people within your local community and your wonderful contribution and dedication has not gone unnoticed.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of the Lions Medical Research Foundation, I have great pleasure in including your name to the list of Community Service Award Holders.

Kind regards
