

CONGRATULATIONS TO KELLY REMFREY

Article submitted by Tina Elliott

Kelly Remfrey has finished off a remarkably busy sporting year with being nominated at the North Queensland Sports Star Awards on the 30th October, held in Charters Towers, as one of the Finalists for the Junior Athlete Sport Star of the Year Award.

Kelly's nomination stemmed from his commitment to playing Rugby League. Kelly, with thanks to his parents, travelled over 18,500km's around the State during 2021 to ensure that he was playing with his team. He competed in the Adrian Vowels Cup held in Charleville in February 2021 in the Under 16's Central West Team. Kelly played in the Under 15 Central West Team that competed in the Central Highlands Challenge and the Coalfields Challenge. Participation in this competition meant weekly travel to towns such as Blackwater, Dysart, Emerald and Springsure. He travelled to Cloncurry for the Arthur Beetson Qld Bush Junior Carnival and played in the Queensland Outback Team at the Sunshine Coast.

Also, Kelly was selected as a Schoolboy Football representative in the following competitions: Central West, Northwest and State Championships held at the Sunshine Coast.

Kelly was acknowledged for his efforts in Rugby League by receiving the Central West Coaches Award for Under 15's and his Nomination for the NQ Junior Sports Star Award.

Additional to his football, Kelly represented his school at Central West and Northwest Level in Swimming, Cross Country and Athletics.

Congratulations and well done to you Kelly – your nomination is very well deserved, and your achievements speak for themselves. Commitment and dedication to your sports is credible and Winton is extremely proud of your efforts.

THE OUTBACK REGIONAL GALLERY

Article submitted by Karen Stephens

Thank you to everyone in the community who joined us last Saturday to celebrate the Outback Regional Gallery's Collection Exhibition. This special occasion marked the three-year milestone since reopening our gallery in 2018 and it's been a moment to acknowledge our supporters and partners who've assisted our gallery rebuild and look forwards. Visitors to the exhibition can experience artworks from the previous collection displayed alongside new pieces that tell the unique story of people, place and our region. Special guests on the evening included visiting Longreach Regional Council Mayor Tony Raynor and wife Vicki and Year 9 work experience student from the Winton State School Ezelika Neshausen spoke at the opening event about her first-hand experience of working with the gallery's collection and seeing the operational processes of an art gallery and museum.

The Collection Exhibition - on display until 2 February 2022.

WINTON BOARDERS NEWS

Article submitted by Tina Elliott & Mandy Smith

Last weekend, Matilda Searle, Chelsea Turnbull and Faith Fogarty performed at the much anticipated 'Freedom' Concert presented by Power Up Dance & Fitness Studio. The girls had been practising hard all year for these dances and they really shone.

Faith was the first of the Winton girls to perform in 'Hands Up' which was the intermediate A Hip Hop n Funk routine. This was followed by Chelsea in the Intermediate C Move and Groove performance of 'Chicago'. In Act 2 both Matilda and Chelsea performed in the Intermediate C

Elke Robertson

Hip Hop N Funk routine 'Suicide Squad' which was a very energetic routine. The girls also then performed in the 'Paint It Black' routine as part of their intermediate C Flex and Contemporary routine. This was a very dark edge of your seat dance which told a story and the girls looked stunning in their black costumes.

Elke Robertson from "Orielson" Corfield has been announced as the 2022 Head Boarder Captain, School Prefect and School Spirit Leader for the Townsville Grammar School. Congratulations to you, Elke.

Charters Towers Touch Teams played semi and finals on the weekend.

Jasmine Elliott and Piper Godfreys' team lost in the Semi Final. Seth Black and Noah Fogarty's BTC team lost to Ned Elliott's ASSG team.

INTER-SCHOOL GALA -

Over the last 2 weeks ASSG has hosted a Basketball and Volleyball Gala event on Friday afternoon/evening. Students from Blackheath & Thornburg College, Columba Catholic College and Charters Towers State High School, as well as ASSG, made the nights a great success. The sportsmanship, competition and friendship were exemplary.

THE CONFUSION OF A STREET NAME

Question submitted by Douglas Williams

“The town map shows Nesbit Street. This street was named after James Nisbet. If this is so, then why is it spelled differently. Is it possible for someone to please provide the correct spelling? Everyone in town spells it differently and it causes much confusion.”

Response from Helen Collins WDHS

Thank you for your enquiry re the correct spelling of Nisbet Street in Winton. This question has been extensively discussed earlier this year with the Winton Shire Council, where the correct spelling as Nisbet Street and Nisbet Lane was confirmed.

Briefly the evidence is as follows.

- James Nisbet founded Oondooroo about 1874 and sold to the Scholicks about 1878. He was only in the district about 4½ years, and had left before Winton town was gazetted in 1879 and the first town survey in 1880.
- when Nisbit street was given that spelling after the third survey in 1899, it was 20 years since James Nisbet had left Winton, after a very brief residence. Few locals would have known him, and those who did have a memory of him, would have given verbal advice which was written down by the surveyor the way it sounded.
- the variant spellings of Nisbet in the Winton district, as in Nesbitt Creek, Nesbitt bore, Nesbitt parish, newspaper reports in the 1950s etc, are further examples of words being written the way they sounded, by later generations with no direct contact with the person involved.

The Winton District Historical Society holds the memoirs of James Nisbet and a photograph of his gravestone, if further documentary evidence is required.

MATT QUINLAN – THE STORY CONTINUES

Information received from Jacob McMaster

For anyone who wishes to follow the story of Matt Quinlan and his services to our Country.

The first story we did on Matt is now part of a 3-part series.

This is the first story we did here -

<https://www.northweststar.com.au/story/7490151/irish-hero-matt-quinlan-forges-new-legacy-in-winton/>

We then spoke with Commandant Pat Quinlan's son to write this piece -

<https://www.northweststar.com.au/story/7504168/soldier-at-peace-in-winton-as-battle-for-honour-still-rages-back-in-ireland/?cs=191>

We will also have a third piece running probably next week after speaking with Matt's sister.

Furthermore, here is a link to a feature story we wrote around John Patrick D'Arcy thanks to information and contacts provided by the Herald -
