“Winton’s News for Winton”

WINTON – there at the beginning of QANTAS

When QANTAS was formed as a Queensland company on 16th November 1920, Winton was recorded as the Registered Office. When QANTAS held its first meeting of the Board of Directors, it was held at the Winton Club. When QANTAS first approached a bank, it was the Bank of New South Wales in Winton.

Winton recently celebrated the 100th Anniversary of that first QANTAS board meeting (and the solid support shown by Winton residents), on Wednesday 10th February, at the Winton Club – still standing. The celebrations included the launch of the new book, WINTON AND THE QANTAS STORY.

This 117-page book was written to help commemorate the Centenary of that first QANTAS Board meeting, held at the Winton Club on Wednesday 10th February 1921.

QANTAS The airline WINTON gave the WORLD

Vast outback distances and poor roads in the 1920's. Young soldiers and airmen returning from World War One with big dreams and new skills. Financial resources of families with grazing and other business interests. Add a touch of serendipity and a pioneering spirit still evident and you have Winton, Western Queensland in Australia in the 1920's.

One aim was to link the far western railheads of Charleville, Longreach, Winton and Cloncurry by air.

And WINTON was a very important part of the QANTAS success.

The Winton Herald is a volunteer-produced newsheet for Winton Business & Tourism Association facilitating and supporting business, tourism, and community of Winton Shire since 1967.

It takes the form of a self-drive around Winton, visiting sites of significance in the formation of QANTAS. Couple this with local QANTAS stories, historical photographs, maps, clippings from the newspapers of the day and background to one of the keys to the successful formation of QANTAS, (Winton's McMaster family), and you will see why Sir Hudson Fysh, one of the QANTAS Founders, wrote: "The idea of QANTAS was conceived in Cloncurry, born in Winton and grew up in Longreach." Another real OUTBACK Queensland success story.

The book was officially launched by the Mayor of Winton, Gavin Baskett.

On the evening of Wednesday 10th February, at the Winton Club, a 'radio play' recreating the first QANTAS Board meeting, 100 years ago to the day was performed. This play was performed in honour of all those Winton aviation pioneers of 100 years ago who contributed money for shares, legal advice, secretarial services, landing strips, business through joy rides and charters, hangar space for the aeroplanes and piloting skills brought home from World War I.

All ticket sale monies were donated to Jessamine Place, helping to keep today's pioneers at home in Winton. A presentation by Jessamine Place formed part of the evening.

Winton District Historical Society and Museum

Sponsor Highlight

When was the last time you visited the Waltzing Matilda Centre and Qantilda Museum out the back?

Who are we?

Did you know the Winton District Historical Society and Museum has been operating since 1972? It aims to collect, conserve and display Winton's local history. The Society is run by a small dedicated group of volunteers that come from many walks of life (and ages), but are all brought together by the same common interest - preserving Winton's history.

What is it we do?

Over the last few years, the Historical Society has undertaken several projects, these include:

- After the 2015 fire which destroyed the first Waltzing Matilda Centre, the Society opened the Qantilda Museum displays to the public in 2016 & 2017, with volunteers welcoming over 13,500 visitors from across Australia.
- Revamping displays through modern interpretive signage
- Installing air-conditioning for a better visitor experience
- Scanning, digitising, and cataloguing old photographs in the collection
- Assisting research enquiries, especially related to family history
- Researching and curating exhibitions- "More than a Name" & "Poet, Horseman, Soldier".

About our Members

Volunteers are able to develop skills in museum writing, curatorial displays, exploring interesting artefacts, archiving, researching historical sources and most importantly having a 'yarn' reminiscing of times gone by. We asked some of our volunteers what their favourite item in the Historical Society's collections was and why?

Lorraine – "I don't really have a favourite because the response we get from visitors and the questions they ask, really points to the interest generated by the whole collection."

Kim – "One of my favourite pieces in the collection is the iron lung. Its sheer size captures the attention of visitors. How it worked and why it was necessary in Winton during the early 1900s is truly fascinating."

Nea & Toby – "We like the steel framed tennis racquets strung with piano wire and used at Ranglands in the 1920's. To this day they have never warped. Also the tyre upsetter, which we've never seen used, but all wagons would have used this article."

Geraldine – "My special display is the superbly restored mural of the 1958 World Rodeo Championships in Winton. Originally in the North Gregory Hotel's old bar, it represents a vibrant time in Winton, with the town bursting with spectators, competitors, horses, cattle, fun, laughter and fights."

John & Elinor – "Our choices are the Jeffery Quad WW1 Ambulance which became a Werna station vehicle, and the old Winton telephone exchange, used until 1984."

Almost 50 years since the Historical Society began, we are always seeking new members to contribute fresh perspective, new ideas and to continue the hard-working Winton ethos. Be sure to spend some time at the Waltzing Matilda Centre (remember, it's free for locals) and explore Winton's history - our history.

The Winton District Historical Society meets on 2nd Thursday of the month at 5pm in the Banjo Paterson Reading Room @ Waltzing Matilda Centre (next meeting 11th March).

We would love to see you there.
