“Winton’s News for Winton”

27 August 2021

The Winton Herald is a Not-for-Profit organisation

Please consider a Gold Coin Donation when you pick up your copy

THE FUTURE OF OUR LOCAL PAPER

As per last week’s front-page article The Winton Herald is a publication produced by volunteers of the Winton Business & Tourism Association. For many years now the Winton Herald has been available to our residents free of charge although we have asked for a gold coin donation to assist with meeting the costs of producing the paper weekly. These costs include printing, paper as well as postage to outlying properties. In Winton like many other small rural towns there are many community organisations all competing for donations.

Changes in the way we deal with money means often people don’t have coins on them when they go to do their weekly shop or to grab other magazines and papers and we recognise that this in turn affects the ability for people to place a gold coin in the donation boxes.

This year saw us without a journalist / editor, and we asked locals to submit stories about local events, this has resulted in a better reading experience for our readers, with positive feedback being passed onto the committee about how much you are enjoying reading the paper.

The decision by the committee to levy a charge for the paper was not made lightly.

The Winton Business & Tourism Association also brings to you the Annual Business Awards dinner, The Bronze Swagman awards and the Junior Bush Poetry.

Once again, the Winton Business & Tourism Association committee express our sincere gratitude to the Winton Shire Council for their assistance each week with the staff and resources required to print the Herald.

This is a reminder that Effective from the first edition in September, the Winton Herald will become a paid paper at $2.00. The paper will continue to be available on line in colour version at

CONGRATULATIONS PRIVATE PATRICK AXFORD

Article submitted by Tina Elliott- Photos by SharpShot Images

Winton sends a huge congratulations to Private Patrick Axford, for marching out at Kapooka on the 20th August. Patrick has just completed his 11 weeks basic training with the 11th Platoon, Bravo Company. Patrick will now be deployed to Singleton, Newcastle, Infantry Unit after a COVID holding period, for 3-4 months of further training. Whilst at Kapooka, Patrick was one of the four 17-year old's that turned 18 whilst undertaking basic training.

Unfortunately, due to COVID, Patrick's parent's, Shane and Jodi Axford and brother Milton were unable to attend his passing out parade. Patrick finished his schooling last year at The Cathedral School, Townsville. Anyone that knows Patrick, knows what a hard-working and determined young man Patrick has become. Serving your country is such a huge commitment - His family and the Winton community are immensely proud of his achievement and wish him all the very best in his new career. Well done, PADDY!!

CREATIVE ARTS WORKSHOP

Article submitted by Jeff Close

A five-day woodworking workshop was hosted by the Winton branch of the Creative Arts. Held at the Mens' Shed, organiser Nea McQueen was thrilled that 11 participants could come for all or some of the sessions.

Those present worked on a range of projects - from furniture restoration to making seats for grandchildren to getting organised for the Outback Festival.

Tutor was Dean Timms from Toowoomba. During the course Juddy very kindly came down and cooked a BBQ and Rod Russell served up a delicious camp oven meal.

Toby McQueen was general help and clean-up. Participants were Steph Grant, Helen Rohan, Lyn Fraser, Bente Moller, Chris Batt, Fiona Nicholson, Sash Whitehead, Delma Russell, Reg Kavanagh, Jeff Close and John Paynter.

HISTORY IN WINTON

Information Sourced and collated by Joy Russell, Submitted by Tina Elliott

THE LONGREACH LEADER January 1924

A disastrous fire occurred in Winton, when nearly all of the south side of Elderslie Street was burnt to the ground, including the Australian and Club Hotels. Damage was estimated at between 80,000 and 100,000 pounds. The fire raged for two hours.

The places destroyed were The Club Hotel, Turners Tent Factory, Winton Butchering Co (ice works and butcher shop), Brettles Cycle Shop, Shorts Tailors, Sorohens refreshment rooms, The Australian Hotel, McIntosh's Office, Kitchingmans (tobacconist & hairdresser shop), Greens Chemist shop, Pengallys Jewellers, Dunns Bootmaker, Marshells Bookseller.

The fire was reported to have broken out in Sorohens.

NEW STAMP MACHINE 8th November 1950

A new stamp machine has now been installed and ready for public use at the Winton Post Office. The machine provides for purchase of stamps of halfpenny and two penny denominations by the simple method of inserting a halfpenny for that stamp and two pennies for a two-penny stamp.

Worked on the slot system, it represents boom to both town and country people and will no doubt be of special use to those country people who make a special trip to town at night or in holiday periods.

NO VANDALISM WANTED

Although the machine has been in use for a few days, already vandals have been at work. Only yesterday, advises the Postmaster, some "person" had inserted a bent hatpin into the machine preventing it from functioning. This sort of hooliganism cannot be tolerated and the public is asked to co-operate in preventing persons tampering with the machine.

1974 article regarding a 14- goat team from 1916

The Sunday Mail

MARCH 31, 1974

Remember Winton's goats?

THE MOST CAPRICIOUS team in the old West? Toughened old bullockies would probably have paled at the thought of whipping this 14-goat team into order.

Mr. Norman Duncan, of St. Lucia, dug up this old photograph taken by his father, Captain James Duncan, in the Western Queensland town of Winton in 1916.

He was only three at that time, but he recalls that the team belonged to an old pioneering family who were too poor to afford horses, or even bullocks.

So when they moved from Longreach to Winton, 179 km away, they harnessed up their 14 goats in front of the shafts of their cart — and shifted their household possessions holus bolus by goat drag.

Every boy wanted to have his own billy goat in those days, according to Mr. Duncan. (Maybe today's equivalent would be a mini-bike).

And these two stalwart lads, complete with pioneering braces and vests, must have been the envy of the local push.

They earned their pocket money by carting loads of wood around the district.

Captain Duncan must have caught them as their delivery service arrived in the main street of Winton.

The Sunburnt Country

The good people of Western Queensland don't beat around the bush when they've got something to say, as you'll gather from the verse from Winton's best-selling local card:

Winton's got the — lot!  The — flies, the —  dust,  To feel our heat's a —  must!  No — mail, no —  phone,  The — roads would  make yer groan.	Our troubles we can't  — share,  There's nobody to —  care!  Rates and taxes and  high inflation,  Chucked in with iso —  lation,  And now it's — floody!

I don't know the author's name. But he's obviously a man who feels — strongly about life out West at present.
