

ANTIQUE 1888 BOOK

Article submitted by Jeff Close

Local Winton historian Peter Russell recently attended the AGM of Corfield and Fitzmaurice and presented a copy of The Genesis of Queensland by Henry Stuart Russel. The interesting feature of the book is that it once belonged to W H Corfield who built the general store in Winton's main street, and from where now a not-for-profit group of volunteers sell handmade crafts and souvenirs.

Janice Evert, Jill Doherty & Ursula Morrison

Coincidentally, W H Corfield wrote his own book in 1930 and it details much information about the early days of Winton and Western Queensland.

Corfield's book, Reminiscences of Early Queensland, has just been republished and is available at Corfields.

At the AGM, office bearers elected were President Meryl (Nookie) Durack, Secretary Roslyn Blacket, Treasurer Betty Coupe and shop co-ordinator Donna Paynter.

Membership forms for interested Winton residents are available at the shop counter.

Winton Outback Motel Wins 2022 Tripadvisor Travellers' Choice Award !!!

Winton Outback Motel's excellent Traveller Reviews land it a place among Guests' favourites – in fact in the top 10% worldwide!

The Winton Outback Motel announced it has been recognised by Tripadvisor as a 2022 Travellers' Choice award winner for their provision of accommodation. The award celebrates businesses that have received great traveller reviews from guests around the globe on Tripadvisor over the last 12 months.

As challenging as the past year was, Winton Outback Motel stood out by consistently delivering positive experiences to their Guests.

"What a great surprise for us all at the Winton Outback Motel !" said Owner/Operator, Steve Collins, when notified of the Award. "Our 3 core principles of Comfort, Service and Value were repeatedly mentioned throughout our Tripadvisor reviews by Guests who've travelled from all over the world to stay with us. We can't thank them enough for their fantastic reviews".

"Congratulations to the 2022 Tripadvisor Travellers' Choice Winners," said Kanika Soni, Chief Commercial Officer at Tripadvisor. "The Travellers' Choice Awards recognize the best in tourism and hospitality, according to those who matter most: your guests. Ranking among the Travellers' Choice winners is always tough — but never more so than this year as we emerge from the pandemic. Whether it's using new technology, implementing safety measures, or hiring outstanding staff, I'm impressed by the steps you've taken to meet travellers' new demands. You've adapted brilliantly in the face of adversity."

AFTER HAVING COVID

For the next 7 days after ending isolation

You can go to work or school or return to your normal activities.

You don't need a negative test result to go back to work or study. There is no need to show a negative test to your employer or educational institution.

This is because most people who get COVID-19 will continue to test positive for some time after they have recovered, even though they no longer have COVID-19 and are no longer infectious.

If you leave your house:

- wear a face mask, including whenever you are indoors, or when you're outdoors but can't socially distance
- wash your hands regularly.

A child under 12 years old is not required to wear a face mask for 7 days after ending their isolation, however a school may require a student to wear one as part of their policies for health and safety reasons.

Don't visit these settings unless for a permitted limited purpose and you have advised them you are a diagnosed person in isolation in advance:

- an aged care facility
- a disability care setting
- a correctional facility like a prison
- a healthcare facility like a GP or a hospital.

You can go to these places if you work there or you are getting care.
