THE ROYAL THEATRE WINTON

Article submitted by Ian Kelleher

Article 3 of 3

See your favourite stars under the stars

What a year it has been for The Royal Theatre Winton. The movie line up has been action packed since the beginning of the season in mid-March.

The team at Winton Movies Inc. (WMI) are passionate about showing films for the local community. In addition to the Nostalgia Night, which runs on Wednesdays, two new regular programs are running this year.

You might have heard the buzz about John Wayne movies recently, this is because you can see a timeless classic from yesteryear on most Sunday evenings. The new program is called, The Sunday Classic.

Following on from the success of the Recovery at The Royal program, which was supported by the Winton Shire Council’s Monsoon Recovery Program, WMI will continue to run feature films on Friday nights with its new program, The Royal Feature.

This is your opportunity to see your favourite stars under the stars! Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start.

Special screenings during the Outback Festival will also feature in September and there will be more program announcements soon.

The upcoming movie titles are advertised in the Winton Herald each week, as well as on the theatre’s new website <https://royaltheatrewinton.com.au/whats-on/>.

You can also keep an eye out for these on their Facebook page.

CORFIELD RACE DAY

Article submitted by Sarah Birchmore

The REAL Corfield Cup has been run and won, a new track record set for the 1400m and the Fashions on the Field were hotly contested, pardon the pun!

Saturday 31st July saw the population of the township of Corfield explode from 2 to around 500 for the annual Corfield Races. It is technically a Winter Race meeting, but someone forgot to tell the weather gods, with a top temp of 35 degrees on the day.

Everyone kept their cool though, with 9 jockeys and 14 trainers making the trip out to compete for over $52,000 in prize money. The fields were impressive and the horses, jockeys, trainers and strappers all performed amazingly in very hot conditions. Trainer of the Meet was won by Denise Ballard, and Jockey of the Meet was taken home by Dan Ballard.

The Brodie Agencies Corfield Cup was a 1400m race and was won by Van Winkel, trained by Mark Oates and ridden by Alisha Ross in one of her last race meetings in Western Qld. Owner Richard Simpson was ecstatic with the win, which also saw a new track record of 1.22.70 set.

Fashions on the Field saw a bevy of beauties dressed in their best Winter Racing outfits competing for over $10,000 in cash & prizes. The weather was definitely not typical winter weather but the fashions were a hot contest in more ways than one.

Emma Read took home the coveted 'Lady of the Day' category in a stunning seafoam green ensemble, while Courtney Brodie stood out from the crowd in a silver and red combination that won her the 'Innovative Racewear' category. Congratulations to all the winners, runners up and competitors.

The Nearest the Pin Golf has highlighted some of the local golfing talent in the Winton district .... Perhaps there will be a few more contenders for the Outback Masters in Winton next year? And once again the Monster Auction has raised considerable funds for the building improvements at the Corfield Race track with bidders digging deep to the tune of $17 000. The Corfield Race Club would like to thank everyone who contributed to making the 2021 Corfield Races a reality. We greatly appreciate the continued support from our sponsors, supporters, volunteers and patrons – without you, our day would not be a success!

We look forward to welcoming you back again in 2022.

NEW MOBILE PHONE TOWER FOR MIDDLETON

Article submitted by Frank Standfast

For those that can remember a time when a phone call from Middleton meant either a less than private RFDS Radio phone call or a trip to Woodstock to try the party line. It was a great leap forward recently when Middleton had a Small Cell Tower turned on giving it Mobile reception. Jointly funded by Winton and Boulia Shires through Federal Govt Drought Community Program Extension 2 and Telstra the tower gives about 5km coverage which encourages weary travellers to stop and revive while checking messages & Social Media. This is the third such tower for Winton after Corfield and Lark Quarry, with a fourth planned for Opalton later this year. Among other benefits it means travellers can now use the QR App to check in as well as promote the area with instant social media posts, with local Lester already a movie and television personality there is a real chance of him becoming an Instagram "Influencer". Mayor Gavin Baskett said

"It's great to see the Telstra Small Cell Tower up and running at Middleton. This will give both locals, transport operators and tourists another level of safety when travelling the long distance between Winton and Boulia. Not to mention the connectivity to be able to send photos and ring relatives from all over Australia. It's fantastic that Winton Shire Council, Boulia Shire Council and Telstra could work collaboratively to get this essential bit of infrastructure completed."

Congratulations to Luke Sorensen and Luciana Spaander on the birth of their son LAREZ JOHAANAS. Born on the 22nd of June 2021 weighing 4kg 37g (9lb 10oz). Larez is the first grandchild for Wayne and Barbara Sorensen, first great grandchild for Ann Murray, Barry and Linda Sorensen and the first great great grandchild for Beryl Shaw.

CHIT CHAT

- Recent Birthdays include PJ Elliott, Renell Durack, Alan Martyr, Dale Elliott, Alan Kitchen, Cameron Holm, Graeme Rogers, Ruby Black & Sheree Banning.
- Big turnout at the last Pfizer clinic at the Shire Hall with 483 people getting “the jab” for the week.
- Last weekend was the 3-year Anniversary of Alan & Wendy handing over the keys of Winton Electrical to Harry & Holly to open as HBB Electrical.
- Rhonda Heslin was in town briefly last weekend visiting family and friends.
- A Diamantina Devil seen representing in Brophy's Boxing Tent recently went pretty well getting the win.
- In Golfing news Ernie Ellis won the Violet Douglas Memorial Trophy last weekend with Brendan & Adrian Lenton getting NTP, Adrian was also putter of the day. The NTP Competition at the Corfield Races saw wins to Robert Ellis, Harry Brodie, Racheal Lenton, Peter Price and Darby Godfrey.
- Condolences to the family of Margaret Britton on her passing.
- Don't forget today is “International Beer Day” so here's some beer trivia. A beer pipeline was created in Germany, where more than 100,000 gallons of beer was piped through 7 kilometres of pipe to serve visitors to a heavy metal music festival. The purpose was to keep the grass from being ruined by beer trucks driving back and forth over the festival grounds. This could be an idea for the next WOWF?

EXCLUSIVE ROYAL 100 BEEF RETURNS TO REGIONAL QUEENSLAND

JBS Australia, along with the EKKA community, are very disappointed to learn of the news that the Royal Queensland Show (the EKKA) has been cancelled for 2021. However, despite the cancellation, one of Australia's most exclusive beef brands Royal 100, is back and will still be available in restaurants across regional Queensland. Produced once a year from the prestigious RNA Paddock to Palate 100-day competition cattle, which is presented by JBS Australia, Royal 100 cattle are fed for 100 days and processed through JBS' vertically integrated Beef City Feedlot and Processing Plant. This ensures the Royal 100 beef delivers a consistent, delicious full flavoured steak consumers can enjoy in the finest dining experience. In JBS' seventh year of presenting the Paddock to Palate competition, JBS Beef City hosted the competition on site for a second time, welcoming approximately 24 participants and their steers to the Darling Downs. This year's competition was the closest in history. JBS Australia's Business Development Manager Denis Conroy, said the Paddock to Palate competition is Australia's richest beef supply chain competition. "The Paddock to Palate competition is held once a year in conjunction with the Ekka and pits the best cattle Producers against each other to create some of Australia's best and most prestigious beef," Mr Conroy said. "The product produced - Royal 100 beef, is a unique, once a year, dining experience. Royal 100 represents the best cattle from the best Producers to create the best beef that can be enjoyed at our exclusive partners' venues." Gary Noller, RNA Councillor and Beef Committee Chairman, said the competition attracts some of the best cattle Producers and their top cattle, which in turn delivers high-quality beef in the Royal 100 brand. "The Paddock to Palate competition is the ultimate judge of how cattle perform on feed and over the hooks," Mr Noller said. "JBS should be commended for bringing the Royal 100 brand to market, allowing consumers to enjoy the beef from some of the country's top Producers. Our Producers continue to share their positive feedback and the pleasure they get seeing their product being showcased into the regional areas, often where many of our Producers live." Royal 100 will be exclusively available at selected venues and butcher shops from Thursday 4 August for a limited time while stocks last.
