

WINTONS AWESOME NEW MURAL

Information and photos from Experience Winton Facebook Page.

The new mural behind the CrackUp Sisters house looks absolutely amazing.

It was painted by Charlie Chambers @jarrawoir to celebrate the regions Indigenous heritage and showcase Charlie's amazing talent as an artist.

This mural can be seen from the road when driving along the bypass so truck drivers and travellers can admire it on their travels.

It will also be a centre piece once the Dustarena starts with performances and shows for the public.

Many thanks to Leah Purcell & Aunty Minnie Mace for helping with the unveiling and sharing with us some Koa Dreamtime stories.

Help keep us up to date!

Please submit your events, with location and time to wintonheraldeditor@gmail.com

The WBTA hopes to have your event in our calendar at least two weeks prior to its occurrence to give those living out of town a chance to attend. In the past, many have commented that they did not know an event was on until it was too late - we are hoping to change that!

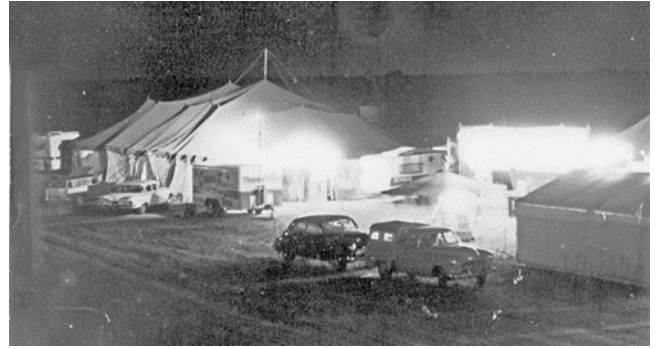

Editorial Submissions

The Winton Herald currently does not have a local journalist and as such we rely on community members to submit articles for publication. If you have recently been involved in running an event, please send a short article and a photo or two to the Editor at wintonheraldeditor@gmail.com for inclusion in the next available issue. Please note submission deadline of 8pm Monday for all articles and photos. Articles may be edited for length or consistency.

SPECIAL WINTON HISTORY

Information and photos with permission from Stephen Fleay

These pictures of the last touring Vaudeville Variety Show Carols...I was Lowrey Organist with the show in 1963 and 1964.....this series was taken in 1964.....Here is the Carols Tent in Winton....The show was joined by showmen who set up their sideshows near the Carols Tent at Winton. My Holden SW/Panel Van is to the left and that Luxurious white Chevy was Lucky Grills personal car. Lucky Grills and Geoff Mack co-owned the show.

Carol's Varieties was well attended when the touring show was on in Winton in the early to mid-1960's.

I'm sure some will remember Geoff Mack and his wife Tabbi Francis. Geoff and Tabbi appeared on stage, radio and television together since the 1950's. Firstly in Europe and then in Australia. Tabbi was a Comedienne and Geoff a singer/songwriter.

Just over 60 years ago Geoff was to write a song which has not only become a world hit, but an evergreen and he did this in the Queensland town of Currumbin, outside the Bird Sanctuary.

In 1959 Geoff was sitting in their car in Currumbin. Geoff had 3 Road Maps.

Geoff had already written songs which he performed himself and some had already been published.

He had his notebook and began jotting down the names which rhymed on the Australian Road Maps. This gave Geoff a great idea for a song which he was to name "I've been Everywhere". A record producer loved it and set the wheels in motion for what was to become a worldwide hit song.

The first version was recorded by Lucky Starr and soon became number 1 in Australia. Geoff sang it for a several months at various venues including the Hotel Coolangatta. (And he kept on singing his songs right into the 21st century). Geoff was given the nickname "TangleTongue" as he was able to sing all those Australian names "rapidly" in this unique song. Wikipedia has some great information on Geoff's most famous song.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/I%27ve_Been_Everywhere

Geoff passed away in 2017 well into his 90's and Tabbi left us in 2020. They were personal friends. I was with their show Carols Varieties in 1963 and 1964 as Lowrey Organist and we kept in touch over the years.

They performed at other venues on the gold Coast of Queensland including Claude Carnell's Playroom Cabaret and the Hotel Grande Labrador.

WINTON BOARDERS NEWS

Article and photos submitted by Alex Sorensen

Last week Simone Sorensen attended the 2022 QLD Hygain Interschool Equestrian Championships, here she placed 8th on Jini in their Working Hunter class.

Then Viva & Jini went on to compete in the 1.20m Showjumping class.

After 3 rounds of jumping, Viva won the Championship and Jini placed 4th.

This now allows Simone to travel to Sydney in September with both horses to compete at the Interschool National Championships.

Fairholme College also placed 4th in the Showjumping teams and 3rd in the Showhorse teams.
