MAYOR'S MONTHLY MINUTES

Since being elected as Mayor in March, I have collaborated closely with the newly elected Council to identify key projects that are important for the future development and security of our shire. Councillors participated in several budget workshops with senior staff members to deliver what we believe is a progressive and responsible budget. I extend my gratitude to Councillors, staff and CEO for their contribution and time spent in delivering the 2024/2025 budget. The Winton shire was amongst 20 local government areas who received new land valuations in March 2024. The average increase for the Winton Shire was 116%. After much careful consideration and being very mindful of the cost-of-living pressures and rising costs to deliver services, Council has decided on a rate increase of 4% for both township and rural categories which is just above the current CPI of 3.6%. The 15% discount will apply for the discount period, and pensioners who hold a Queensland pensioner concession card, for land owned and permanently occupied by the pensioner, will continue to receive a $312 rebate on rates and charges. As mentioned, there are ongoing projects from the 2023/2024 budget that we are committed to completing for the benefit of our community. These include the new Showgrounds/Bar/Kitchen, Youth Centre/Recovery Centre and a loading and unloading walkway for a triple road train at the double-decker ramp to improve safety at the Saleyards. The extension of the industrial estate is underway and will secure future growth in our commercial business. Our shire has a road network of 2,500 kilometres and Council's maintenance program aims to keep our road network at an acceptable standard for transporting commodities, our residents and our ever-increasing tourist population ensuring continued work for our road crews is essential. With the funding now secured, work will commence on the first stage of the 37kms remaining to seal the Jundah Road through to Lark Quarry, through ROSI (Roads of Strategic Importance) funding. This funding is over 3 years with a split 80% / 20% contribution between the Federal Government and Winton Shire Council. The sealing of this section will increase road safety and will link for both primary industries and tourists to Lark Quarry. The importance of being a liveable place is significant for communities in the Outback, not just for keeping our current residents, also for drawing in new families and investors to our fantastic local government area. The Council has set aside funds in this budget to explore the idea of creating a recreational lake within our town. In the next few months, the Council plans to organise meetings with the community to discuss this project. Additionally, the Council is committed to enhancing the walking paths throughout our town to ensure the safety and ease of access for all. The rural sector of our shire is the number one economic driver, and besides having safe roads to transport livestock, controlling pests and weeds are also imperative, and Council have again committed $280,000 to the Wild Dog Working Group. Council recognises the efforts our local committees, clubs and organisations do in facilitating events throughout the year for our community and has allocated $300,000 once more for this purpose. In 2025 Winton will celebrate 150 years of settlement. Council has engaged an Events Coordinator to work with Council and residents to ensure that we mark this milestone in our Shire's history. Council will encourage all events held throughout the 2025 calendar year to continue with the 150-year branding that Council has approved. Our Council is committed to delivering the best outcomes for our shire that are responsible and long term financially sustainable. Council in the past has participated in a Business Improvement Plan with Qld Treasury and Council will continue to explore potential strategies for supporting a cost-effective accountable business model. Cr Cathy White Mayor Winton Shire Council.

Book Week: Bluey and Bingo

The initiation of Book Week was celebrated with a lively morning at the park, where children dressed up in their costumes representing their favorite literary characters to engage in delightful activities and enjoy a morning tea. The day commenced with the captivating tale of "Going on a Bear Hunt," and was enjoyed by all the children as they participated in the narrative, embarking on an exhilarating quest for a bear.

The next morning was particularly thrilling, marked by the much-anticipated return of Bluey. After a live performance, all children and their families were invited to share warm embraces with Bluey and Bingo, creating cherished memories through photographs.

WORKS DEPARTMENT

Utilities upgrade and Dog Park Clean-up bags

The Water and Sewerage team are pleased to announce that all sewer pumps have had scheduled upgrades. The works to the water pump station are still underway.

The Parks and Facilities team has installed pet clean-up bags at the dog park. This makes for a cleaner park where all patrons can ensure their doggie's business is removed.

Grandstand Seating

The timber seating in the grandstand and smaller stands at the recreational grounds and camp draft area have been replaced with steel rails to make for a more comfortable seat with less splinters! The Council would like to thank the Work Camp crew through Correctional Services for doing this work.

Youth Centre

The concrete slab has been poured and is currently curing. The team is installing the columns, and the beams are scheduled to be installed in early September, this is when we will see the Youth Centre construction take shape.

Balustrades in Elderslie Street

Additional balustrades have arrived to replace the various café style barriers in the main street. Arrangements are being made for their installation.

Leaky Bore Program Update

The leaky bore program continues to progress, with two facilities recently inspected to assess water requirements for the bore drillers. It is expected that both bore holes will be drilled and completed before Christmas, which will be a great step forward in enhancing water resources for the community

Feed Assessment on Town Common

The grasses on Town Common are showing signs of stress, with a notable drop in growth. A formal feed supplement assessment is currently underway, and it is likely that lick blocks will soon be placed in the area. These blocks will help livestock digest the feed that has begun to die off due to the changing weather conditions.

Dog Bounty Program

The Dog Bounty Program has been open since 1 July, 2024. All claims which are made must have GPS locations of each scalp collected and the landowner's signature of approval or the claim will be denied.

For all queries, please contact ruralservices@winton.qld.gov.au or phone 4657 2656

Increased maintenance due to rising temperatures

As the weather heats up, we are seeing increased demands on water resources. Regular water runs have become essential to ensure adequate hydration for livestock. Additionally, maintenance of watering systems is receiving greater attention to keep them functioning efficiently in these hotter conditions.

Welcome Kendall Batey to the Rural Services Team

We are excited to introduce Kendall Batey as the new member of the Rural Services team. With extensive experience working on properties throughout the region, Kendall has completed her orientation of the stockroutes. Landholders on the stockroutes can expect to see Kendall maintaining facilities. Be sure to give her a warm welcome!

Busy season for Rural Services

The busy season has officially started for the Rural Services department. With the need for increased water runs and preparations for the bi-annual common muster, the team is working at full capacity. In addition, wild dog management efforts are also increasing. While dates for the muster and wild dog management events are yet to be confirmed, we are making significant progress in organising these key events. Keep an eye on the Winton Shire Council Facebook page for the latest updates and details as they become available.
