Council Meeting Highlights

Below is a snapshot of Decisional Reports from the December Council Meeting. This was our last meeting for 2023 and second last meeting before Council goes into caretaker mode prior to the 2024 Local Government election. Of the reports that were presented to Council, the ongoing dispute with the Project Manager and Contractor, regarding the Geothermal, has been the most contentious and frustrating project we've had to deal with. Hopefully the next round of discussions will provide an outcome that we all agree on and get some finality for this long-drawn-out project. For a full copy of the Draft December Minutes and Business Paper please visit our website, noting that the minutes have up to 10 working days to be made available to the public. The next Council meeting will be at the WSC Chambers on the 18th of January.

Mayor's Monthly Minute

It's hard to believe we've reached this time of year again, 2023 is almost done and dusted and time to start thinking about 2024.

It has been another busy festive season with the Lighting of the Christmas, the Christmas Street Party and the Thank You BBQ for the WORK Camp Men. All these events were well attended and enjoyed by the community. I would like to thank and congratulate WSC staff for the great work in preparing Elderslie Street for the Christmas period and all the work that goes into hosting these events.

On behalf of the Winton Shire Councillors I'd like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a happy new year, with safe travels during this time of year.

BI BITES

BIOSECURITY TIDBITS

Have you seen galvanised burr?

A common misconception is that galvanised burr is an invasive species. These little spikey bushes are in fact a native grass and council is unable to take any action against their growth. If you have galvanised burr in your yard, it is best to pull them out before they become established. New sprouts tend to grow at the end of winter if you are quick, you will be able to stay on top of their spread by removing them at this stage.

Weed Declaration

It is important for landholders and fodder transporters to ensure they know what is in the fodder they receive and transport. Ensuring you receive a Biosecurity Matter Hygiene Declaration form when receiving and transporting fodder will ensure all parties are aware of what they have. This is one-way landholders and transporters can meet their General Biosecurity Obligations (GBO).

This declaration can provide a person with a way of demonstrating they have met their general biosecurity obligation according to section 23 of the Biosecurity Act 2014 (QLD), if they are supplying or contain any thing that is or could be contaminated with biosecurity matter.

Drivers Caution

Please take caution while driving on roads passing through the commons and stay updated with drover notices posted on the Winton Shire Council Facebook page. Keep an eye out for potential wildlife and livestock on roads across the shire, including cattle from the common area that might stray onto the main road. For the safety of all, we strongly advise both tourists and locals to practice caution, taking necessary measures to prevent any possible collisions.

Stock Routes Vegetation Coverage

Towards the end of November, the shire received some patchy summer rain. This has provided a wonderful boost of growth for the grasses where it rained. Due to the patchy nature of the rain however, the stock routes still have not completely bounced back from the early November weather. Feed is low currently.

Stock Route and Common Maintenance

With the weather heating up and the grass dropping on our stock routes and commons the rural service team have been working hard to maintain water at all the water facilities. This involves an increase in the number of water runs to ensure water levels are in good condition and clearing out some turkeys nests that have already gone dry.

Stock Route Reserves Permits

Landholders facing the impacts of fire, flood, or drought are entitled to seek a grazing permit for stock route reserves. According to the Stock route Management Act of 2002, these reserves are designated for use by landholders affected by fire, flood, or drought. The sole requirement is the submission of a drought declaration form by the applicant to substantiate their eligibility.

Queensland's climate provides the perfect breeding ground for mosquitoes that can carry harmful diseases like Japanese encephalitis. This disease can affect horses, pigs and even people.

JEV

The good news is, there are simple things you can do to reduce the risk:

- Remove anything outside filled with water
- Fill potholes that collect water
- Clean out gutters, downpipes, and drains
- Ensure effluent drainage is free flowing
- Make sure all tanks and wells are sealed or screened with 1mm mesh

If you have pigs or horses, know the signs of JEV and learn how to protect your animals.

Cats in Town

Cats (feral and domestic) have played a significant role in Australia's mammal extinctions and threaten 123 native species. A recent analysis of pet cats shows that each roaming cat kills an average of 186 native animals annually, totaling 4,440 to 8,100 per square kilometer. To protect wildlife, responsible pet owners keep 1.1 million cats indoors, but 2.7 million, or 71%, still roam freely. The message is clear: keeping cats indoors is crucial for preserving Australia's biodiversity.

Cats and Australian wildlife by the numbers

Pet cats

There are 3.8 million pet cats in Australia, of which:

1.1 million (29%)

...are kept inside 24 hours a day.

2.7 million (71%)

...are allowed outside to roam and hunt.

- Roaming pet cats kill 390 million animals collectively per year in Australia
- An individual roaming pet cat kills 186 reptiles, birds and mammals per year, most of them (59%) native species
- A study found 39% of cats brought in at night snuck out for nocturnal roaming and hunting
- Pet cats bring home only 15% of what they hunt.

Feral cats

- The average feral cat kills 748 reptiles, birds and mammals a year
- In the bush there is one feral cat per 3 to 4km², versus 40 to 70 pet cats per km² around towns
- Pet cats kill 30-50 times more animals per km² around towns than feral cats do in the bush.

Vacation Care Program

The last 2 weeks have been outstanding fun at Vacation Care. We had a couple of fun pool days, engaging in volleyball in the middle pool and fun on the water park. Miss Teagan brought in her Thermomix, and we made our own pizza bases for pizza and movie day!

We've spent a couple of days at the library where it's nice and cool and we have had Amanda from the Crack Up Sisters spend a morning with us playing games, teaching us several flips and tricks and teaching us how to crack a whip!

Playgroup

We recently held our end-of-year Christmas celebration this week, complete with a special appearance from Santa Clause. The children were delighted as they received presents from him and we captured the joyous occasion with a photoshoot.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves and eagerly await the opportunity to repeat this enjoyable experience next year!
